1. The Ming Sei, a Chinese society, is the headquarters of the Chinese Democratic League. The Ming Sei is divided into three sections, the "Decisive Committee" or "Inner Circle", the "Steering Committee", and the "Outer Circle". The "Outer Circle" consists of leaders who are not communistically oriented, and is composed primarily of rich traders, who give money for social purposes. The "Steering Committee" forms the contact group between the "Inner Circle" and the "Outer Circle".
2. Apparently existing completely independent of the Ming Sei, is a "Chinese Educational Committee" through which all Chinese teachers are engaged and paid, but the leaders of this Committee are the very same persons who sit on the "Steering Committee".
3. By the manipulations of the above organizations, the teaching personnel of the Tiong Hwa School and the Hoa Kiao School have already become completely communistically oriented, while communist influence in other Chinese schools is increasing rapidly.
4. The Chinese organization, Lee Che Sea in Djombang, is a Communist organization in Republican territory which spreads propaganda through "Sport Societies" and schools in which youths are given Communist tutoring. A very good library with Communist books and publications is at the disposal of the leaders.
5. There is a Chinese Communist organization on Madoera named Perkoempoelan Communist Chung Hua. Its centers of activity are Soemenep, Pamekasan, Bangkalan, and Telaga Biru (113-05, 6-53).
